

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

APRIL 24, 2016

On behalf of the clients of the Sister Dolores Social Outreach Program, we offer a heart felt thank you to the St. Rose of Lima community for your unwavering support in helping the needy in the city of Chula Vista. A special thank you to all our St Rose volunteers who have dedicated their time and talent to serve the poor and the homeless.

We wanted to share some exciting news. Our parish and social outreach program was awarded the “2016 Excellence in Nutrition” award from Feeding America –San Diego for our commitment in providing nutritious fruits and vegetables to our clients through our Fresh to Families project.

Please join us on Sat, April 30th and Sunday May 1st as we celebrate the Sister Dolores Thrift Store’s 3rd birthday and anniversary. We are so thankful for all your donations to the store. Sales have exceeded over $30,000 this fiscal year alone!

We are pleased to share that our program will once again be the recipient of the “Scouting for Food Community Drive” being held April 23rd through May 5th here at St Rose of Lima Parish. Every donated item helps our program provide groceries to families that face food insecurity in our community.

Fifth Sunday of Easter

The celebration of Easter continues, but is the Easter fire still aflame with the Resurrection in your heart? This week in the Acts of the Apostles, we hear about the Evangelization of the world continuing with great vigor into the gentile world. How much vigor do we have for the Resurrection? Are we sharing the Love Christ has for us with the rest of the world? Christ commands us in the gospel to “Love one another”; a phrase we have heard many times before. This command is exactly what Christ did for us through the Incarnation, Crucifixion, and Resurrection.

God loved us so much so that He sent his Son to us for our redemption. Christ suffered the Cross for our sake, not his own. In the same way, Christ is commanding us to love the people around us. Not for our own good, but for the good of those other people.

We exemplify our love for others by offering our prayers for them, committing charitable acts of mercy, and proclaiming Christ to the world. Loving one another is about showing Christ to each other. God is love, and so making Jesus—the second person of the Trinity—the center of our way of life, makes love the center of our life. Imagine our community and how fulfilling and attractive it would be if we as a parish showed this truth to each other everyday.

Essentially, a Catholic is called to love everyone. This does not mean you need to like everyone. Clearly a person who harms us physically or robs from us is someone we won't like. However, we still must love him or her. This means that anything we do to people—whether we like or dislike them—must be done for their best good. “Do unto others what is best for them” is the understanding behind the “Golden Rule”.

Jesus went to the cross and was resurrected for our good, not God's. God does not need us, but God loves us. God wants what is best for us, and we need to follow that example and let the flame of His Spirit stir our hearts.

Quinto Domingo de Pascua

La celebración de la Pascua sigue pero, ¿sigue la flama de la resurrección Pascual encendida en tu corazón? Esta semana escuchamos en los Hechos de los Apóstoles como la evangelización se va extendiendo con gran entusiasmo al mundo de los gentiles. ¿Cuánto entusiasmo tenemos nosotros por la resurrección? ¿Estamos compartiendo con el resto del mundo el amor que Cristo nos tiene? Cristo nos ordena a amarnos “unos a otros”, que es una frase que hemos escuchado muchas veces. Este mandamiento es exactamente lo que el mismo Cristo hizo para nosotros a través de su encarnación, crucifixión, y resurrección. Dios nos ama tanto que nos envió a su Hijo para redimirnos. Cristo sufrió en la cruz por nosotros, no por su propio bien. De la misma manera, Cristo nos ordena a amar a los que nos rodean no por nuestro bien, sino por el bien de ellos.

Logramos este amor a nuestro prójimo al ofrecer nuestras oraciones por ellos, hacer obras caritativas de misericordia, y predicar de Cristo al mundo. El amarnos unos a los otros es mostrar a Cristo a los demás. Dios es amor, entonces, el poner a Jesús – la segunda persona de la trinidad – como centro de nuestras vidas hace que el amor sea el centro de nuestras vidas. Imagínense cuanta satisfacción y realización habría en nuestra comunidad si nosotros como parroquia mostráramos esta verdad a nuestro prójimo todos los días.

Esencialmente un católico debe amar a todos, pero esto no quiere decir que todos te deben simpatizar. Obviamente si una persona nos hace un daño físico o nos roba, no vamos a simpatizar con ella. Sin embargo, aun así debemos amarla. Esto quiere decir que todo lo que hacemos a los demás, aunque nos caigan bien o nos caigan mal, debe ser hecho con su bien en mente. Haz a los demás lo que es mejor para ellos. Así es como se interpreta el mandamiento esencial de Dios.

Jesús murió en la cruz y resucitó por nuestro bien, no el bien de Dios. Dios no nos necesita, pero aun así Dios nos ama. Dios quiere lo mejor para nosotros, y debemos seguir el ejemplo que Él nos da y dejar que la flama del Espíritu Santo remueva nuestro corazón.

Holy Family bilingual Rosary Prayer Group

We continue to meet on Tuesdays at 7 pm in the church chapel to pray the Rosary. On the first Tuesday, we meet promptly at 6:30 so that we can join Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at 7pm in the church. All are welcome. Bienvenidos.

Our Lady of Fatima Rosary

Our Blessed Mother wants to visit your homes and spend a week or two with your families in praying the rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet. You may invite Her any time during the year or in celebrations like birthdays and anniversaries. You may also invite Her when you need comfort and healing. The members of the Filipino-American Association of St. Rose of Lima Parish (FASRL) will be happy to accommodate your request and will join you in your prayers. We normally schedule the transfer of the image of Our Lady of Fatima on Tuesdays but we try to lend flexibility to our schedule upon special requests. We would like to reach out to all parishioners and our community to participate in this year-long recitation of the rosary and spread the devotion to our Blessed Virgin Mary. For more information and reservation please call Lolita at (619) 421-6097 or Nancy at (619) 421-6078.
